SENIOR EXEMPT SALES TAX CARDS PER PMC 4.28.130

It is the responsibility of the senior citizen to present their sales tax exemption card to local merchants prior to each exempt sale being finalized. A business is rightfully justified in denying a tax exemption should a senior not be able to present their card.

A Senior may not use their exemption card for:

1. The purchase of alcoholic beverages or tobacco products;
2. When the goods or services purchased are for use in any trade or business;
3. For purchases for which the card holder is reimbursed or remunerated by a person or entity on whose behalf the purchase was made and who would not otherwise qualify for a sale tax exemption.

No person who has not applied for and received an exemption card may use it to obtain tax exemption. A spouse is not eligible to receive the exemption unless they have their own card.

Senior tax exempted sales totaled $5.7 million in FY 2016.
