PUBLIC NOTICE
PETERSBURG LOCAL EMERGENCY
PLANNING COMMITTEE

LEPC members are volunteers and government employees who live within a specific local emergency planning district. The Petersburg LEPC promotes emergency planning and preparedness throughout the Borough. Federal legislation states that, as a minimum, each LEPC shall include representatives from the following groups: elected officials, law enforcement, civil defense, firefighting, first aid, health, local environmental, hospital, transportation personnel, broadcast and print media, community groups, and owners/operators of facilities subject to regulation by SARA Title III.

The Petersburg LEPC currently has vacancies for the following positions: Transportation and Public at Large.

Detailed information regarding the composition, duties, and responsibilities of an LEPC can be found in Chapter 8 of the book SARA Title III, Intent and Implementation of Hazardous Materials Regulations. Alaska Statute 26.23.071 establishes the Alaska SERC and LEPCs, and specifies their duties.

Applications are available at the Petersburg Volunteer Fire Department or the Borough Finance Office. Positions are open until filled. For more information, please contact Sandy Dixson at (907) 772-3355.

This ad was paid for in part by a grant from the Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management.
