MICROSALE PROGRAM

The Petersburg Ranger District is offering an annual Microsale program. A microsale is a timber sale consisting of dead and down timber which has been proposed by a prospective purchaser and is approved by the District Ranger. Microsales can only occur in approved locations. The sale can then be offered for bid using an informal advertisement, Tongass Standard Rates and a short bid form. Wood fiber from a microsale may be utilized for sawlog and/or value added wood products for small timber entities. Maximum size for a microsale is 50,000 Board Feet (50 MBF) and/or $10,000 in advertised value.

No legal advertisement for specific microsales will be made. Information regarding microsale opportunities and bid forms will be posted at the front desk of the Petersburg Ranger District office. Prospective bidders must submit completed bid forms to the District office bid box during normal office hours. The period of advertisement will be 10:00 AM Thursday morning until 1:00 PM the following Tuesday (5 days). Bid openings will be held at 2:00 PM Tuesday. For additional information on microsales please contact the Petersburg Ranger District: (907) 772-3871 or (907) 772-5949.
